— “O.T. Prophecies Already Fulfilled” —

More than three hundred (300) Old Testament references to Messiah were fulfilled in the First Century A.D. What are the odds? We're told that the likelihood that one man could fulfill just eight (8) of them is one in ten to the seventeenth power— $1/10^{17}$ .

No member of our Link1™ Bible Research Team can qualify as a mathematician, so maybe you'll be willing to do the complex extensions on that and share them with us. Then, we can get them out to lots of other good folk who're sure to be interested.

Meanwhile, we've documented quite a lot of those fulfilled prophecies, to include the verbatim before-and-after O.T. and N.T. scriptures. That's the "You'll-never-forget-it" substance of Lesson One in our current Online Study series. You can find the ACCESS CODE to Lesson One in the Series Intro document. Here's the link:

You may know that several famous historical figures have commented on the anomalies that characterized Our Lord while He walked on the same dirt we walk on today. (That is, of course, also the dirt that God used to form the man, Adam.) Who some of those historical figures were and what they had to say about Jesus may surprise you; e.g.: Napoleon Bonaparte. Follow this link to his verbatim comments:

Let us hear from you soon, okay? For one thing, several folk have asked to be notified each time we post a brand new "Shorts" article or a new full-length article. We're not quite sure how to go about that. If we were to establish a weekly newsletter, might you be among those who'd sign up for it?
