

— “One Shall Be Taken...” —

In this one, I'll ask YOU to draw the conclusions. So here are some scriptures followed by some related questions...

- 1 "Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Two [women] shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left." —Jesus, at Matthew 24:40,41

Question: Which one will get "LEFT BEHIND?" (Select one.)

The good woman

The bad woman

Careful—most readers will select the wrong answer. Jesus' preface to those verses may help...

"But as the days of Noe [were], so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, And knew not until the flood came, and TOOK them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be." Matthew 24: 37-39

To refresh your memory on who "THEY" and "THEM" were, read chapters 6 and 7 of Genesis.

- 2 "Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the TARES, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the WHEAT into my barn." —Jesus, at Matthew 13:30

Question: Which group will get "left behind?" (Select one.)

The "tares" (Note: They're called "weeds" in some Bibles.)

The "wheat"

- 3 If there is to be a Rapture, would YOU want to be "taken" or "left behind?" Why?

From those who rationally explain why they disagree, I learn volumes.*

Please, no arguments from 3rd-party "experts."
